2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, where an enterprise of a Contracting State carries on business in the other Contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each Contracting State be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing wholly independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.

5. Where profits include items of income or capital gains which are dealt with separately in other Articles of this Convention, then the provisions of those Articles shall not be affected by the provisions of this Article.
6. Nothing in this Article shall affect the operation of any law of a Contracting State relating to tax imposed on profits from insurance relating to risks situated in that State with non-residents provided that if the relevant law in force in either Contracting State at the date of signature of this Convention is varied (otherwise than in minor respects so as not to affect its general character) the Contracting States shall consult with each other with a view to agreeing to any amendment of this paragraph as may be appropriate.

2. Where a Contracting State includes in the profits of an enterprise of that State - and taxes accordingly - profits on which an enterprise of the other Contracting State has been charged to tax in that other State and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first-mentioned State if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other State shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those profits. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14 as the case may be of this Convention, shall apply.

1. Where a resident of a Contracting State considers that the actions of one or both of those States result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Convention, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the domestic law of those States, present his case to the competent authority of the Contracting State of which he is a resident.

The case must be presented within two years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Convention or, if later, within six years from the end of the taxable year or chargeable period in respect of which that taxation is imposed or proposed.

2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with this Convention. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits or other procedural limitations in the domestic law of the Contracting States, except such limitations as apply for the purposes of giving effect to such an agreement.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of this Convention. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in this Convention.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other directly for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.
5. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may by mutual agreement settle the mode of application of this Convention and, especially, the requirements to which the residents of a Contracting State shall be subjected in order to obtain, in the other State, the tax reliefs or exemptions provided for by this Convention.

Article (26)

Exchange of Information

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall exchange such information as is foreseeably relevant for carrying out the provisions of this Convention or to the administration or enforcement of the domestic laws of the Contracting States concerning taxes of every kind and description imposed on behalf of the Contracting States, or of their political subdivisions or local authorities, insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to this Convention, in particular, to prevent fraud and to facilitate the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance. The exchange of information is not restricted by Articles 1 and 2 of this Convention.
2. Any information received under paragraph (1) of this Article by a Contracting State shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that State and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, the determination of appeals in relation to, the taxes referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, or the oversight of the above. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions.
3. In no case shall the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article be construed so as to impose on a Contracting State the obligation:
 - a. to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - b. to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - c. to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy.

4. If information is requested by a Contracting State in accordance with this Article, the other Contracting State shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though that other State may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations of paragraph (3) of this Article but in no case shall such limitations be construed to permit a Contracting State to decline to supply information solely because it has no domestic interest in such information.

Article (27)

Nothing in this Convention shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of diplomatic missions and their personal domestics, or members of consular missions, or of members of permanent missions to international organisations under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements

PROTOCOL

At the signing of the Convention between the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Tax Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income and on Capital, the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland have agreed that the following provisions shall form an integral part of the Convention.

1. With reference to Article 3 (General Definitions): It is understood that
 - a. with respect to subparagraph (d) of paragraph (1) of Article 3, the term «person» also includes the State, its political sub-divisions or local authorities;
 - b. the term «pension scheme» means any plan, scheme, fund, trust or other arrangement established in a Contracting State which:
 - i. is generally exempt from income taxation in that State; and
 - ii. operates principally to administer or provide pension or retirement benefits or to earn income for the benefit of one or more such arrangements.
2. With reference to Article 4 (Residence):

it is understood that the term «resident of a Contracting State» includes

 - a. a pension scheme established in that State; and
 - b. an organisation that is established and is operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, cultural, or educational purposes (or for more than one of those purposes) and that is a resident of that State according to its laws, notwithstanding that all or part of its income or gains may be exempt from tax in that State
3. With reference to Article 7 (Business Profits):

it is understood that

 - a. in the case of contracts for survey, construction, supply or installation, the profits of a permanent establishment shall not be determined on the total amount of the contract, but shall be determined only on the basis of that part of the contract which is effectively carried out by the permanent establishment in the state where the permanent establishment is situated. Any portion of the contract executed outside the Contracting State in which the permanent establishment is situated shall not be taken into consideration in determining the profits of that permanent establishment;

b. the term «business profits» includes, but is not limited to, income derived from manufacturing, mercantile, banking, insurance, the operation of inland transportation, the furnishing of services and the rental of tangible personal movable property. Such a term does not include the performance of personal services by an individual either as an employee or in an independent capacity.

4. With reference to Article 10 (Dividends):

it is agreed that dividends shall be exempt from tax in the Contracting State of which the company paying the dividends is a resident if the beneficial owner of the dividends is a pension scheme which is a resident of the other Contracting State;

5. With reference to paragraph 2(a) of Article 10 (Dividends):

a. the term «property investment vehicle» means a widely held investment vehicle that distributes most of its income - from immovable property within the meaning of Article 6 - on which it is exempt from tax;

b. the term «qualifying dividend» means a distribution by a property investment vehicle as referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

6. With reference to Article 11 (Income from Debt Claims):

it is understood that the term «income from debt-claims» does not include any item which is treated as a dividend under the provisions of Article 10 of this Convention.

7. With reference to Article 13 (Capital Gains):

a. shares in which there is substantial and regular trading on a stock exchange are not within the scope of paragraph 4;

b. it is understood that the provisions of paragraph 6 of Article 13 shall not affect the right of a Contracting State to levy according to its law a tax chargeable in respect of gains from the alienation of any property on a person who is, and has been at any time during the previous six fiscal years, a resident of that Contracting State or on a person who is a resident of that Contracting State at any time during the fiscal year in which the property is alienated.

8. With reference to Article 24 (Elimination of Double Taxation)

- a. where gains may be taxed by the United Kingdom in accordance with paragraph 7(b) of this Protocol, the United Kingdom and not the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia shall eliminate double taxation in accordance with the methods set out in paragraph 1 of Article 24 as if the gains arose from sources in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. However, where gains may be taxed by the United Kingdom in accordance with paragraphs 1, 2 or 3 of Article 13, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and not the United Kingdom shall eliminate double taxation in accordance with the methods set out in paragraph 2 of Article 24.
- b. For the purpose of the United Kingdom providing relief for Saudi Arabia tax, it is understood that Saudi Arabian nationals resident in the United Kingdom are subject to income tax in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on their income from sources therein, therefore such persons will be entitled to credit in the United Kingdom only for income tax payable to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on their income from sources therein.

9. With reference to Article 26 (Exchange of Information)

it is understood that as long as the domestic laws of both Contracting States so allow, both Contracting States shall exchange information held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or information relating to ownership interests in a person.

- 10. With reference to the Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for the Avoidance on a Reciprocal Basis of Double Taxation on Revenues Arising from the Business of International Air Transport and on the Remuneration of Employees of Enterprises Engaged in such Business, signed at Riyadh on 10 March 1993, it is understood that nothing in this Convention shall affect the provisions of that Agreement to the extent that they have effect as regards taxes to which this Convention applies. However, where any greater relief for such taxes is afforded by any provision of this Convention, that provision shall apply.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.
